Aim

4 The aim is to manage the allocation of resources, oversee the Government's tax and other revenue-raising policies, facilitate decisions on government investments, and promote open, fair and competitive tendering, in line with prudent financial management principles and other policy objectives of the Government.

Brief Description

- 5 The Treasury Branch's work under this programme is to formulate, co-ordinate and implement policies and actions to:
  - ensure that the growth of government expenditure over time is in line with the trend growth rate of the economy;
  - ensure that the resources available are directed towards those areas where they will be of most benefit to the community;
  - promote value for money in the delivery of government services;
  - improve Hong Kong's competitiveness and living environment by investing in major infrastructure projects;
  - maintain a low, simple and predictable tax system which encourages investment and enterprise;
  - combat tax evasion and minimise opportunities for tax avoidance;
  - raise sufficient revenue to cover our spending commitments; and
  - maintain adequate fiscal reserves to provide a cushion against future uncertainties.
- 6 In 2006, the Treasury Branch continued to co-ordinate the resource allocation, Estimates compilation and Budget preparation process, and helped ensure that the financial implications of new proposals from bureaux and departments were examined with due diligence.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2007-08

- 7 During 2007–08, the Branch will:
- continue to control government expenditure in line with the principle of keeping expenditure within the limits of revenue:
- draw up a final report of the public consultation on tax reform;
- continue to consider major investment and loan proposals in support of economic and social development;
- continue with the implementation of the Asset Sale and Securitisation Programme;
- appoint financial consultants to carry out various financial appraisals;
- · continue to support corporatisation or privatisation initiatives as they arise;
- implement the Government's decision on the merger proposal of the two railway corporations in terms of financial arrangements; and
- continue to maintain the 'user pays' principle for appropriate government services by regular revisions of fees and charges.

Programme (3): Service Departments

	2005–06 (Actual)	2006–07 (Original)	2006–07 (Revised)	2007–08 (Estimate)
Financial provision ($m)	42.1	43.7	42.0 (-3.9%)	44.1 (+5.0%)

(or +0.9% on 2006–07 Original)

Aim

8 The aim is to ensure that government departments receive the central support services necessary to enable them to maintain and upgrade the level and quality of the services they provide to the public in an efficient and cost-effective manner.

Brief Description

- 9 The Treasury Branch's work under this programme is to formulate and co-ordinate policies and actions to:
- ensure the efficient and cost-effective delivery of central support services under its purview (i.e. financial information management, procurement, supplies management, land transport, printing and accommodation); and
- ensure that the service departments under its purview provide quality support services to meet the needs of the user bureaux and departments.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2007-08

- 10 During 2007–08, the Branch will continue to:
- monitor and facilitate the work of the service departments to ensure efficiency of operation and cost-effectiveness in the delivery of central support services;
- co-ordinate with the Treasury on the implementation of the new Government Financial Management Information System with a view to rolling out the new system smoothly by 2008; and
- co-ordinate the allocation of resources for minor building works with a view to ensuring proper scrutiny and prioritisation of the projects.

Analysis of Financial and Staffing Provision

Programme (1)

Provision for 2007–08 is $0.1 million (1.5%) higher than the revised estimate for 2006–07. This is mainly due to salary increments for existing staff.

Programme (2)

Provision for 2007–08 is $8.5 million (6.8%) higher than the revised estimate for 2006–07. This is mainly due to the increased salary provision arising from staff changes, deferred provision for appointment of financial consultants and increased requirement for air passenger departure tax administration fees.

Programme (3)

Provision for 2007–08 is $2.1 million (5.0%) higher than the revised estimate for 2006–07. This is mainly due to the increased salary provision arising from staff changes.
