Aim

2 The aim is to provide guidance and direction for long-term development and investment in Hong Kong through the formulation and revision of territorial planning policies and development strategies and the undertaking of planning studies including research with a cross-boundary dimension.

Brief Description

3 The Department is responsible for the preparation and review of territorial development strategies and the undertaking of planning studies for special areas. The work involves:

- preparing and revising the Territorial Development Strategy;
- conducting land use-transport studies including land use-transport model tests and evaluating the transport performance of development options/proposals in the course of formulating territorial plans;
- carrying out planning studies and research on development issues with a cross-boundary dimension;
- examining the patterns and projecting the demand of cross-boundary travel;
- formulating and revising planning standards and guidelines;
- carrying out planning studies and research at the territorial level;
- undertaking planning studies for special areas; and
- assessing and monitoring the supply and demand of land for major land uses.

Head 118 — PLANNING DEPARTMENT

4 In 2007, the Department completed the study on Hong Kong 2030: Planning Vision and Strategy, the Survey on Features with Cultural Heritage Value in the Sha Tau Kok, Ta Kwu Ling and Ma Tso Lung Areas, the Survey on Propensity to use Private Cars to Cross the Boundary, and the Cross-boundary Travel Survey 2006. The Department was also heavily engaged in various planning studies, including the Planning Study on the Co-ordinated Development of the Greater Pearl River Delta Townships, Hung Hom District Study as part of the Review of the Harbour Plan, Land Use Planning for the Closed Area, New Cross-boundary Control Point at Liantang/Heung Yuen Wai and the Associated Connecting Roads in Hong Kong to the New Cross-boundary Control Point, and Area Improvement Plan for the Shopping Areas of Mong Kok. A number of these planning studies and surveys were entrusted to consultants. In addition, the Department continued with the monitoring of the supply and demand of land for major uses. The Department was also heavily engaged in the follow-up studies on transport infrastructure arising from the Economic Summit on 'China's 11th Five-Year Plan and the Development of Hong Kong', held in September 2006.

5 The key performance measures in respect of territorial planning are:

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2008–09

6 During 2008–09, the Department will:

- manage the planning studies on the Land Use Planning for the Closed Area, the Co-ordinated Development of the Greater Pearl River Delta Townships, and New Cross-boundary Control Point at Liantang/Heung Yuen Wai and the Associated Connecting Roads in Hong Kong to the New Cross-boundary Control Point, monitor the Hong Kong-Macao-Guangdong Information Database and continue with research on development issues with a cross-boundary dimension;
- manage and complete the Cross-boundary Travel Survey 2007 and manage the survey on the Hong Kong residents living in Shenzhen areas; and
- launch new planning studies on Hong Kong Island East Harbour-front District Study as part of the Review of the Harbour Plan, Study on the Enhancement of the Lau Fau Shan Rural Township and Surrounding Areas as follow-up from the recommendations of Hong Kong 2030: Planning Vision and Strategy Study, and Study on the Enhancement of the Sha Tau Kok Rural Township and Surrounding Areas.

Programme (2): District Planning

	2006–07 (Actual)	2007–08 (Original)	2007–08 (Revised)	2008–09 (Estimate)
Financial provision ($m)	244.3	254.0	260.0 (+2.4%)	279.8 (+7.6%)
				(or +10.2% on 2007–08 Original)

Aim

7 The aim is to provide a rational pattern of land use to promote and guide development in the different parts of the territory through the execution of various statutory and non-statutory town planning functions at the district level.

Brief Description

8 The Department undertakes forward planning, development control and planning for urban renewal in various planning districts, enforces the Town Planning Ordinance (TPO), and provides technical and secretariat services to the Town Planning Board (TPB) and its committees. The work involves:

- preparing and revising statutory and non-statutory plans;
- processing representations to statutory plans;
- processing planning applications and reviews;
- processing applications for amendment of plans;
- preparing planning briefs, planning studies, reports and programmes;

Head 118 — PLANNING DEPARTMENT

- rendering district planning advice on development proposals and studies;
- conducting site searches;
- assisting the Development Bureau (DEVB) in the processing of the Urban Renewal Authority (URA)'s corporate plan and business plan;
- processing development proposals including development schemes and projects of the URA;
- liaising with the URA and other redevelopment agencies on urban renewal matters;
- undertaking enforcement and prosecution actions against unauthorised developments under the TPO;
- co-ordinating all submissions to the TPB and its committees, and submitting draft plans to the Executive Council; and
- handling planning appeals and judicial reviews relating to statutory planning procedures.

9 The Town Planning (Amendment) Ordinance 2004 came into operation on 10 June 2005. It helps enhance the transparency of the planning system, streamline the town planning process, and strengthen the planning enforcement control over unauthorised developments in the rural New Territories. A revised set of Master Schedule of Notes (MSN) was prepared for incorporation into statutory plans to streamline planning control. By the end of 2007, about 95% of the statutory plans have incorporated the revised MSN. In 2007, work on enforcement and prosecution against unauthorised developments continued, with 2 150 enforcement notices issued, and 157 defendants in respect of 43 cases successfully convicted. The Department worked closely with the DEVB and the URA in the implementation of urban renewal projects, and in the processing of the URA's corporate plan and business plan for approval by the Financial Secretary.

Financial provision ($m)	2.4	2.3	1.9 (–17.4%)	2.0 (+5.3%)
				(or –13.0% on 2007–08 Original)

Aim

12 The aim is to keep the TPO and related legislation under review, and achieve a more open and efficient planning system and better development control in keeping with changing needs and circumstances.

Brief Description

13 The Department is responsible for keeping the TPO under review and examining the interface between the TPO and other related ordinances. The work involves:

- reviewing the existing statutory planning system and practice;
- formulating proposals and preparing drafting instructions for any amendments to the existing TPO;
- undertaking work related to the implementation of Town Planning (Amendment) Ordinance 2004; and
- carrying out public consultation and briefings on this matter.

14 The Town Planning (Amendment) Ordinance 2004 came into operation on 10 June 2005. The related TPB Guidelines have been promulgated and open TPB meetings have since been held. The Department is overseeing the implementation of the amended TPO. The fee proposals on planning applications have been considered by the former Legislative Council Panel on Planning, Lands and Works. The Fees Regulation is under preparation.

15 The key performance measures in respect of ordinance review are:

Analysis of Financial and Staffing Provision

Programme (1)

Provision for 2008-09 is $0.2 million (0.2%) higher than the revised estimate for 2007-08. This is mainly due to increased provision for salary increments and planning studies, partly offset by reduced cash flow requirement for non-recurrent items. In addition, one post will be deleted in 2008-09.

Programme (2)

Provision for 2008-09 is $19.8 million (7.6%) higher than the revised estimate for 2007-08. This is mainly due to increase in salary provision arising from the net increase of eight posts, filling of vacancies and salary increments, increase in expenses for conducting planning studies and increased cash flow requirement for non-recurrent items.

Programme (3)

Provision for 2008-09 is $0.1 million (5.3%) higher than the revised estimate for 2007-08. This is mainly due to increase in operating expenses.

Programme (4)

Provision for 2008-09 is the same as the revised estimate for 2007-08.

Programme (5)

Provision for 2008-09 is $4.6 million (6.2%) higher than the revised estimate for 2007-08. This is mainly due to increased cash flow requirement for non-recurrent items and increased expenditure on the implementation of information technology strategies. In addition, six posts will be created in 2008-09.
