Aim

2 The aim of the Independent Police Complaints Council (IPCC) is to ensure that investigations of reportable complaints by the Complaints Against Police Office (CAPO) of the Hong Kong Police Force (HKPF) are carried out in a thorough, impartial and efficient manner.

Brief Description

3 The main functions of the IPCC are:

- to observe, monitor and review the handling and investigation of reportable complaints by the Commissioner of Police (the Commissioner), and to make recommendations, where appropriate, to the Commissioner and/or the Chief Executive (CE) in respect of the handling and/or investigation of reportable complaints;
- to monitor actions taken or to be taken in respect of any member of the police force by the Commissioner in connection with reportable complaints, and to advise, where appropriate, the Commissioner and/or the CE of its opinion on such actions;
- to identify any faults or deficiencies in any practices or procedures adopted by the police force that have led to or might lead to reportable complaints, and to make recommendations, where appropriate, to the Commissioner and/or the CE in respect of such practices or procedures;
- to review submissions made by the Commissioner pursuant to the IPCC Ordinance (Cap. 604) (the Ordinance); and
- to promote public awareness of the role of the IPCC.

4 The number and complexity of reportable complaints received and processed are the main indicators of IPCC's work. Performance is assessed having regard to the thoroughness with which investigation reports received from the Commissioner are examined and the quality of the comments given to the Commissioner on these reports.

5 The IPCC has broadly achieved its aim. Its overall performance, as reflected by the number and thoroughness of investigation reports reviewed and processed, has been maintained at a satisfactory level.

6 The key performance measures are:

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2012–13

7 In 2012–13, the IPCC will:

- strive to reduce the time taken to examine investigation reports submitted by CAPO;
- identify any faults or deficiencies in HKPF's practices or procedures with a view to reducing the number of complaints; and
- continue to organise publicity activities to enhance public awareness of the role of the IPCC.

ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL PROVISION

Programme	2010–11 (Actual) ($m)	2011–12 (Original) ($m)	2011–12 (Revised) ($m)	2012–13 (Estimate) ($m)
Police Complaints Administration	28.5	35.2	36.1 (+2.6%)	37.9 (+5.0%)
				(or +7.7% on 2011–12 Original)

Analysis of Financial and Staffing Provision

Provision for 2012–13 is $1.8 million (5.0%) higher than the revised estimate for 2011–12. This is mainly due to the increased provision for recruiting additional staff to cope with the increasing workload in vetting cases received from the CAPO and for improving IPCC's computer system; as well as for publicity.
