Aim

2 The aim is to maintain an independent and effective judicial system which upholds the rule of law, safeguards the rights and freedoms of the individual and commands confidence within and outside Hong Kong.

Brief Description

3 Under this programme, different levels of courts and tribunals hear and adjudicate criminal cases and civil disputes. The operational objectives of these courts and tribunals are to:

- ensure just and expeditious disposal of cases;
- enhance professional standards;
- ensure the Judiciary and the courts keep abreast with changing times; and
- develop a bilingual court system in Hong Kong.

4 In 2012, the overall performance of the programme area was satisfactory, save for the High Court. The majority of the performance targets at various levels of courts were achieved. A few targets in the High Court were not met. One of the main reasons for this is due to the temporary constraints in the deployment of judicial manpower in the High Court as a result of elevation of Judges to higher positions and retirement of Judges. The open recruitment exercise for the Court of First Instance Judges of the High Court was completed in mid-2012 and new appointments were made in the latter part of 2012 and will be made in 2013. These new substantive appointments will help improve the waiting times. The Judiciary will continue to closely monitor the situation.

5 Under this programme, resources are also deployed to perform various statutory functions including those under the Electoral Affairs Commission Ordinance (Cap. 541), the Interception of Communications and Surveillance Ordinance (Cap. 589), the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571) and the Legal Practitioners Ordinance (Cap. 159) in relation to the Higher Rights Assessment Board and related matters.

6 The key performance measures in respect of operations of the courts and tribunals are:

Targets

The waiting time targets have been set in accordance with the recommendations of the Court Users' Committees or are laid down in the respective ordinances or court rules.

β The average waiting times for criminal appeals exceeded the target very marginally. Great efforts and priority were given to timely disposal of criminal appeals. The average waiting times for civil appeals were lengthened. This was partly due to retirement of Judges and partly due to more complex, lengthy and refixed cases. By November 2012, all Justice of Appeal posts were filled substantively. Additional judicial resources will be deployed if needed with a view to improving the waiting times. The Judiciary will continue to closely monitor the situation and will make every effort to improve the waiting times.

The average waiting times for the Criminal Fixture List, Civil Fixture List and appeals from Magistrates' Courts exceeded the targets due to more complex, lengthy and refixed cases as well as increase of caseload in civil cases. It is also due to the temporary constraints in the deployment of judicial manpower in the High Court as a result of elevation of Judges to higher positions and retirement of Judges. The open recruitment exercise for the Court of First Instance Judges of the High Court was completed in mid-2012 and new appointments were made in the latter part of 2012 and will be made in 2013. In the interim, additional deputy judges have been and will be appointed to sit in 2012 and 2013 with a view to improving the waiting times. The Judiciary will continue to closely monitor the situation and will make every effort to improve the waiting times.

7 It should be noted that the number of cases alone is not a true reflection of a court's workload. In recent years, there has been an increasing number of complex cases that generally take longer time to conclude. Without compromising the quality of justice, the Judiciary will continue to try to enhance the productivity of the courts through measures such as improving the listing system and appropriate deployment of judicial resources.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2013–14

- 8 In 2013–14, the Judiciary will:
- continue to monitor the waiting time at the various levels of courts, particularly those in the High Court, and redeploy judicial resources if necessary;
- continue to monitor the working of the reformed civil justice system after the implementation of the Civil Justice Reform; and
- prepare for the establishment of the Competition Tribunal as provided for under the new Competition Ordinance (Cap. 619).

Aim

9 The aim is to provide efficient and effective services to support the operation of courts.

Brief Description

10 Under this programme, administrative services are provided to support the hearing of cases in courts and tribunals at different levels, and to carry out court orders. The work involves:

- providing effective recording services for court proceedings and producing transcripts for these proceedings;
- ensuring that both the Chinese and English languages can be used in the court system;
- providing efficient bailiff services for the enforcement of court orders and service of summons;
- keeping comprehensive legal reference books and research materials for the use of judges, judicial officers and the legal profession; and
- adopting information technology and other modern management tools to enhance the efficiency of court support services.

11 In 2012, the aim of the programme was generally met and the overall performance of the programme as reflected by the key indicators was satisfactory.

12 The key performance measures in respect of support services for the courts and tribunals are:

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2013–14

- 13 In 2013–14, the Judiciary will seek to:
- continue to provide support to unrepresented litigants in the High Court and the District Court through the Resource Centre for Unrepresented Litigants;
- sustain quality management in the Judiciary Administration; and
- implement an information technology strategy plan for the Judiciary.

Analysis of Financial and Staffing Provision

Programme (1)

Provision for 2013–14 is $107.4 million (12.6%) higher than the revised estimate for 2012–13. This is mainly due to the increased provision for filling of vacancies and a net increase of two directorate judicial and 39 non-judicial posts in 2013–14.

Programme (2)

Provision for 2013–14 is $28.1 million (10.0%) higher than the revised estimate for 2012–13. This is mainly due to the additional provision for operating expenses to provide enhanced support services for courts' operation, filling of vacancies and a net increase of seven non-judicial posts in 2013–14.

Details of Expenditure by Subhead

The estimate of the amount required in 2013–14 for the salaries and expenses of the Judiciary is $1,272,125,000. This represents an increase of $135,528,000 over the revised estimate for 2012–13 and of $214,434,000 over actual expenditure in 2011–12.

Operating Account

Recurrent

2 Provision of $1,258,578,000 under Subhead 000 Operational expenses is for the salaries, allowances and other operating expenses of the Judiciary. This includes provision of $333,100 for a non-accountable entertainment allowance for the Chief Justice of the Court of Final Appeal. The increase of $135,967,000 (12.1%) over the revised estimate for 2012–13 is mainly due to the full-year effect of posts created in 2012–13, the filling of vacancies, the increased provision for salary arising from a net increase of two judicial and 46 non-judicial posts in 2013–14 and operating expenses to support courts' operation.

3 The establishment as at 31 March 2013 will be 1 690 permanent posts. It is expected that there will be a net increase of 48 posts in 2013–14. Subject to certain conditions, the controlling officer may under delegated power create or delete non-directorate posts during 2013–14, but the notional annual mid-point salary value of all such posts must not exceed $529,075,000.

4 An analysis of the financial provision under Subhead 000 Operational expenses is as follows:

5 Provision of $8,612,000 under Subhead 206 Expenses of witnesses and jurors is for the expenses of witnesses in hearings in criminal cases and in coroners' inquiries, and jurors in both criminal and civil cases and in coroners' inquiries. The increase of $847,000 (10.9%) over the revised estimate for 2012–13 is mainly due to anticipated increase in requirement and revised rates of allowances for witnesses and jurors.

Capital Account

Plant, Equipment and Works

6 Provision of $3,702,000 under Subhead 661 Minor plant, vehicles and equipment (block vote) represents a decrease of $2,129,000 (36.5%) against the revised estimate for 2012–13. This is mainly due to decreased requirements for minor plant and equipment in court buildings.
