				(or +3.6% on 2016–17 Original)

Aim

2 The aim is to provide the Legislative Council (LegCo) with an overall assurance that the Government's financial and accounting transactions and those of funds of a public or quasi-public nature are proper and that they conform to accepted accounting standards.

Brief Description

3 The Commission audits the accounts of all government departments and offices, and the accounts of the Hong Kong Housing Authority, the Exchange Fund, the trading funds, the funds established under section 29 of the Public Finance Ordinance (Cap. 2). The Commission also audits non-government fund accounts and subvention expenditure. A total of 82 accounts were certified in 2015–16, and the number of accounts to be certified in 2016–17 and 2017–18 will be 82 and 83 respectively. The provision spent on regularity audit, as a percentage of the total provision for the Commission, was about 33 per cent in 2015–16. It is expected to be maintained at about 34 per cent each in 2016–17 and 2017–18.

4 The key performance measures in respect of regularity audit are:

Head 24 — AUDIT COMMISSION

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2017–18

9 During 2017–18, the Commission will continue to monitor closely the development of various government programmes and keep in view the need to conduct value for money studies which help enhance public sector performance and accountability. To ensure resources are allocated to audit areas which are worth pursuing, the Commission will continue to select subjects for review based on established audit criteria such as materiality and timeliness.

Analysis of Financial and Staffing Provision

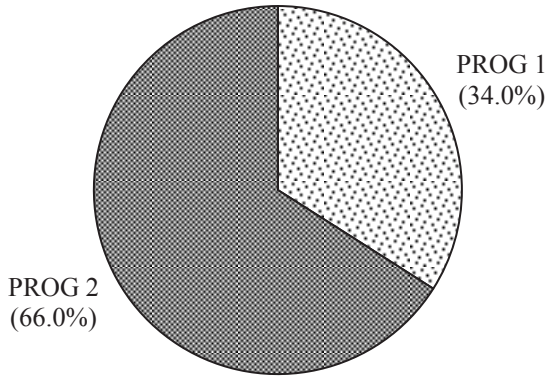

Programme (1)

Provision for 2017–18 is $2.2 million (4.0%) higher than the revised estimate for 2016–17. This is mainly due to the salary increments for staff, increased requirements for personnel related expenses and departmental expenses, to be partially offset by decrease of one post.

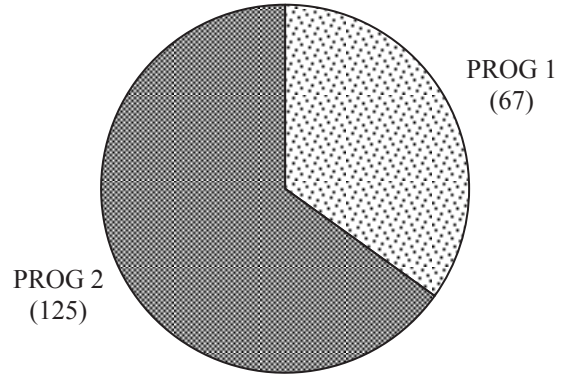

Programme (2)

Provision for 2017–18 is $2.1 million (1.9%) higher than the revised estimate for 2016–17. This is mainly due to the increased requirements in personnel related expenses and departmental expenses, to be partially offset by reduced requirements in salaries.
