Aim

2 As a public broadcaster, Radio Television Hong Kong (RTHK) aims to inform, educate and entertain the general public and target audience through a balanced mix of high quality programmes.

Brief Description

3 The Radio Division of RTHK produces and transmits a mix of radio programming to the community of Hong Kong. It supports seven channels, which are:

- Channel 1 (Cantonese) - news, information and general programming;
- Channel 2 (Cantonese) - youth, entertainment and popular music; promotion of family and community projects;
- Channel 3 (English) - news, information and general programming;
- Channel 4 (English and Cantonese) - serious music and fine arts;
- Channel 5 (Cantonese) - elderly, culture and education;
- Channel 6 (English) - BBC World Service relay; and
- Channel 7 (Putonghua) - general programming, news and finance.

4 The Division offers three main services: the Chinese service supports channels 1, 2, 5 and 7; the English service, channels 3 and 4; and the News and Current Affairs service, all but channel 6. The PCCW-HKT Technical Services Ltd. continues to provide engineering and technical support under the Broadcasting Services Contract.

5 In 2010, the news team of the Division continued to provide accurate news coverage of local, regional, national and international news. The news coverage included not only audio reporting on the radio, but also video reports on RTHK's new media platforms including the RTHK website (rthk.hk), podcasts and access by mobile telecommunication devices.

Head 160 — RADIO TELEVISION HONG KONG

6 In response to the Qinghai earthquake in April 2010, special programmes were produced to report on the disaster and to appeal for donations. RTHK also organised and co-ordinated the recording of a theme song featuring local artists and singers, and relayed the “Artists United for Yushu Earthquake Relief Concert”.

7 Special programmes in various channels were produced to promote and report the Expo 2010 Shanghai China from May to October 2010. The opening ceremony and the closing concert of the Hong Kong Week were produced and relayed live to Hong Kong.

8 Special programmes and features were produced on the World Cup 2010. Special programmes were also produced to cover the Asian Games held in Guangzhou in November 2010. Features were produced on the outstanding performance of Mainland and Hong Kong athletes.

9 Radio 2 launched a campaign to celebrate its “30th Anniversary”, with a main theme on promoting the channel as a family and youth channel.

10 Radio 7 partnered with Radio Guangdong to launch the “Guangdong-Hong Kong Green Line” to address cross-boundary environmental issues.

11 The Public Affairs Unit of the Division produced “China on the Dot”, a new programme on national affairs, and specials for the 2010 Legislative Council By-election.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2011–12

13 During 2011–12, RTHK will:

- produce programmes relating to the Voters' Registration Campaign, District Council Election, Radio 2's "30th Anniversary", 20th Anniversary of the promulgation of the Basic Law, the first centenary of the Xinhai Revolution, and the Chief Executive's Election, etc.;
- produce projects to support special education;
- continue to strengthen the arts and culture programmes and programmes for the elderly and promote creativity;
- prepare for the launch of digital audio broadcasting services;
- work on the digitisation of programme archives to preserve the cultural heritage of Hong Kong's public broadcasting;
- continue to plan for the new Broadcasting House in Tseung Kwan O in relation to radio services; and
- formulate plans for community involvement in broadcasting including the procedures for handling funding applications submitted by community groups.

Aim

14 As a public broadcaster, RTHK aims to inform, educate and entertain the general public and target groups through the provision of a balanced mix of high quality television (TV) programmes that are not adequately provided by commercial broadcasters.

Brief Description

15 The Television Division of RTHK produces programmes under five programming strands, namely current affairs, educational programmes, general programmes, servicing productions and documentaries. Some notable productions for 2010 are "Face to Face", "Election Forums for the 2010 By-election", "The Moment", "Rooms to Let" and "Kung Fu Quest".

16 To foster creativity and nurture young talents in the area of animation, computer graphics and multimedia, RTHK organised the International Animation Festival in December 2010, with sponsorship by Create Hong Kong (CreateHK). Two half-hour TV specials under the title "Cat's World Animation Carnival" were produced.

17 RTHK has been actively participating in Asia-Pacific Broadcasting Union's co-productions in order to introduce Hong Kong audience to different genres, contents and television formats that are popular in the Asia-Pacific region.

18 To support HKSAR's involvement in Expo 2010 Shanghai China, RTHK produced a number of TV specials: "Hong Kong Week Special - Expo 2010 Shanghai China" and "Hong Kong at Shanghai Expo". In addition, RTHK provided coverage and pool signal for the Shanghai Expo Hong Kong Week opening ceremony and closing concert.

19 RTHK also produced programmes on special events. They include the "Asian Games Special - Games to Thrill", "the Government House - 155th Anniversary" and the "Sichuan Earthquake Second Anniversary Special".

Head 160 — RADIO TELEVISION HONG KONG

20 In 2010, RTHK, leading a Television Appreciation Index Advisory Panel which comprised representatives from local TV stations, advertising association and university professors, conducted an industry-wide television programme Appreciation Index (A.I.) Survey for 2009. RTHK scored 72.1, which is the highest average amongst the local stations. Of the programmes with the top 20 A.I. scores, 11 were RTHK productions.

21 Three RTHK commissioned animation programmes won the 1st, 2nd and 3rd places in the 12th Tokyo Broadcasting System Television (TBS) DigiCon6 Hong Kong Regional Awards competition organised by Hong Kong Productivity Council. One of these programmes, “Temple Rider”, also won the Encouragement Award at the Asia-Pacific grand final of the 12th TBS DigiCon6 Awards. RTHK also collaborated with National Geographic to launch the “Hong Kong to the World” project, with funding support from CreateHK and the Hong Kong Jockey Club, to groom more local documentary producers. To nurture local creative talents, RTHK will continue to commission programmes.

22 Arising from Broadcasting Authority’s mid-term review of the domestic free television programme service licences conducted in early 2010, additional time slots were allocated to RTHK on both TVB and ATV commencing November 2010. Details as follows:

- Additional RTHK programmes directed by Broadcasting Authority—
 - ATV: 10:00 – 11:00 every Saturday on its Home channel for broadcast of children and education programmes.
 - TVB: 08:00 – 08:30 every Sunday on its Jade channel for broadcast of culture programmes and 12:05 – 13:00 every Sunday on its Jade Channel for broadcast of public affairs programme.
- Additional RTHK programmes as stipulated in the amended domestic free television programme service licences—
 - TVB: 11:30 – 12:00 every Saturday on its channel 85 (HD Jade) and 18:00 – 18:30 every Saturday and Sunday on its channel 83 (iNews) for broadcast of public affairs programmes.

23 To continue maximising the audience reach of RTHK programmes, the broadcasting of RTHK programmes in other platforms such as Hong Kong Cable TV, Hong Kong Broadband Network, Now Broadband TV, TVB Pay Vision and Road Show was explored. In addition, non-profit-making organisations may use RTHK TV programmes for free for educational purposes or community service.

24 The key performance measures in respect of public affairs and general TV programme are:

§ Additional transmission hours have been arranged with NOW TV (Channel 331) starting November 2011.

Λ New indicator as from 2009–10. As Hong Kong's public broadcaster, RTHK provides video signals of major HKSAR official events e.g. Flag Raising Ceremonies, Policy Address and Legislative Council (LegCo) sittings to the media in addition to its programme output. In particular, RTHK provided TV coverage and pool feed signal of the Shanghai Expo Hong Kong Week to local broadcasters and media organisations. The hours of public event signals provided to media in 2010–11 were significantly lower than those in 2009–10 because in 2009 RTHK was one of the host broadcasters for the 2009 East Asian Games covering the following competitions - table tennis, badminton, swimming and diving.

δ From 2009–10, TV coverage of LegCo sittings has been included in the hours of public event signals provided to media, as this will better reflect RTHK's scope of service in this regards.

Ω Include warnings, breaches or advices issued by the regulatory authority, and substantiated complaints received from all other sources.

φ Of the surveyed broadcasters, the highest average of 72.1 was scored by RTHK for 2009–10, while the overall average was 68.9.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2011–12

25 During 2011–12, RTHK will:

- continue to promote the community's civic awareness and support HKSAR's official events;
- continue to produce programmes on creativity and encourage creativity through commissioning projects;
- continue to explore collaborations with national and international partners;
- continue to produce programmes to reflect the daily life of the community, including stories of the underprivileged and minorities;
- continue to cover public performances and produce programmes with art, culture and sports topics to promote public appreciation;
- continue to work with the Home Affairs Bureau (HAB) and other government agencies to raise public awareness of family core values, and to foster a pro-family culture and environment;
- prepare for the launch of digital terrestrial television (DTT) services by increasing the production of high definition programmes and establishing DTT transmission network;
- work on the digitisation of programme archives to preserve the cultural heritage of Hong Kong's public broadcasting; and
- continue to plan for the new Broadcasting House in Tseung Kwan O in relation to television services.

Financial provision ($m)	33.0	30.2	27.8 (–7.9%)	27.2 (–2.2%)
				(or –9.9% on 2010–11 Original)

Aim

26 The aim is to produce school educational television (ETV) programmes for the Education Bureau (EDB) in support of the Government’s education policies.

Brief Description

27 School ETV programmes are produced mainly on subjects like Chinese Language, Putonghua, English Language, Mathematics, Science and General Studies for primary schools, while some programmes are produced for secondary schools to support the Junior Secondary and New Senior Secondary (NSS) curriculum. Programmes for students of pre-primary schools have also been produced since 2003. Most of the programmes are of 15-minute duration. Apart from curriculum-based programmes, the “Education Magazine” programmes are produced to cover the latest developments in education and curriculum reforms.

28 The programmes are broadcast to schools via the two local terrestrial television stations on weekdays during term time. The annual transmission hours in 2010 were 620.

29 The key performance measures in respect of school ETV programmes are:

§ The usefulness indicator is reported by teachers along the scale from 0 to 100.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2011–12

30 During 2011–12, RTHK will continue to:

- produce new programmes on school subjects and cross-curriculum education for EDB;
- produce programmes for supporting Moral and National Education, NSS subjects such as Liberal Studies, Sciences, Physical Education, Applied Learning, Other Learning Experiences and the Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education, etc.;

- produce non-curriculum programmes, such as recording of inter-school contests including Hong Kong Schools Music Festival and Speech Festival and re-packaging of prime-time programmes with educational values; and
- broadcast pre-primary school programmes in specified time slots.

Programme (4): New Media

	2009–10 (Actual)	2010–11 (Original)	2010–11 (Revised)	2011–12 (Estimate)
Financial provision ($m)	20.8	20.3	21.6 (+6.4%)	27.7 (+28.2%)
				(or +36.5% on 2010–11 Original)

Aim

31 RTHK aims to extend its high quality radio and TV programming to local and non-local audiences by leveraging the different platforms in the new media.

Brief Description

32 The RTHK ON INTERNET service began in December 1994. Over the years, different platforms catering to various needs have been created. “eTVonline” and “Tutor Online” websites were developed for interactive and education related activities while “Teen Power” targeted at the young generation. In July 2010, the RTHK website was revamped and retitled “rthk.hk”.

rthk.hk

33 The URL of the official website of RTHK is rthk.hk. It now provides the simulcast of all the 24-hour RTHK radio channels except Radio 6 (BBC World Service relay), and more than 11 hours every week of prime-time and fringe-time Chinese and English television programmes. Other Internet services provided include on-demand archives of all radio, TV and news programmes broadcast in the past 12 months, and a choice of original web contents produced by the New Media Unit.

34 RTHK launched “myrthk” and “Podcast Corner” in 2005. The two services provide customised playlist functions and audio/visual podcast content to Portable Media Players. In 2007, RTHK daily video news podcast was added and the “Podcast Corner” was revamped to the “Podcast Station” to cope with the growing demand in podcasting. RTHK has since published over 10 000 audio and 6 000 video podcast episodes. There are over 45 000 registered members of “myrthk”. In 2010, an audio high quality player and myrthk+ were upgraded, using peer-to-peer technology to enhance online audio and video streaming quality. To facilitate access to RTHK programmes on mobile platforms, RTHK launched its first iPhone application “RTHK On the Go” and also enhanced the mobile version (<http://m.rthk.hk>) in June 2010. There are over 200 000 downloads of the application and users can receive RTHK instant news and information anytime and anywhere.

35 RTHK produced special online projects and live video webcasts on various social events and international conferences including the web special of “Expo 2010 Shanghai China”, “World Cup 2010”, “The Budget 2010-2011”, “The Chief Executive’s 2010–11 Policy Address” and weekly live webcast of LegCo sittings.

36 In 2010, RTHK continued to license rthk.hk web content to various mobile service operators and provide multimedia content on the RTHK YouTube Channel.

Teen Power

37 To cater for the needs of the youth, a dedicated multimedia online platform Teen Power, operated and manned by youth, produced daily programmes which were hosted by collegiate recruits and Radio 2 trained novice Web Js. Teen Power has an accumulative online membership of about 38 000. Collaborative ventures of multi-media output and productions were organised regularly.

eTVonline

38 The “eTVonline” and “Tutor Online” websites provide online interactive services to all schools, with downloadable multimedia teaching modules. These websites aim to enhance the learning value of curriculum programmes. Students and teachers can interact and communicate with each other via these platforms. “eTVonline” has organised inter-school student forums and conducted online discussions on Liberal Studies topics.

39 In 2010, “eTVonline” organised over 30 curriculum-based activities, involving over 15 000 teachers and students. Such activities include Liberal Studies, Media Education, Family Education, Moral Education, etc.

40 “eTVonline” has explored and started to use different social networking services, such as facebook and microblog, as platform to provide services, so as to adapt to the new internet trend of the younger generation.

Head 160 — RADIO TELEVISION HONG KONG

41 In the first three quarters of 2010, “eTVonline” produced over 30 hours of live webcast and video filming of educational events, including “Tutor-on-Line”, “Family Education” (with HAB), “Digista Teens@Asia”, “Do Not Gamble Campaign” (with HAB), “JENESYS” (with EDB), and “Anti-Corruption Television Commercials Competition” (with the Independent Commission Against Corruption).

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2011–12

43 During 2011–12, RTHK will continue to:

- enhance web content with Web 2.0 elements, and develop new online projects for e-Learning Channel, Culture Web and Chinese Civilisation Channel through multimedia and interactive production and co-operation with outside organisations;
- improve the technical performance of rthk.hk for stable access by local and overseas users, and facilitate personalised use of the content;
- explore the expansion of delivery formats of rthk.hk content to the next generation of multimedia and communications devices;
- explore new services such as Internet Protocol Television and mobile applications to increase new platforms that may allow access to RTHK contents;
- work with EDB, teachers’ organisations and non-governmental organisations to organise Liberal Studies student forums, seminars and workshops to respond to the demand for more Liberal Studies teaching modules and for enhancement of the “eTVonline” service;
- launch thematic multi-media online projects, such as the “DJ Survivor” under Teen Power to attract public participation; and
- provide diversified learning opportunities through “eTVonline” and strengthen the ties with schools to host interactive school activities, with a view to building a learning community of students and teachers in Hong Kong.
