| | | | | (or +6.1% on 2012–13 Original) |

To facilitate comparison, the figure for 2011–12 excludes provisions for broadcast monitoring and regulation as well as entertainment licensing which were absorbed by the Office of the Communications Authority (OFCA) Trading Fund and transferred to Head 63 – Home Affairs Department respectively upon the establishment of OFCA on 1 April 2012.

Aim

2 The aim is to enforce a system of film classification according to the Film Censorship Ordinance (Cap. 392) (FCO) through a censorship scheme which meets the needs and reflects the moral standards of the community; to control, together with the Police and the Customs and Excise Department, the publication of obscene and indecent articles by enforcing the Control of Obscene and Indecent Articles Ordinance (Cap. 390) (COIAO); and to register local newspapers under the Registration of Local Newspapers Ordinance (Cap. 268) (RLNO).

Brief Description

3 The Office took up the functions of film classification, control of obscene and indecent articles and newspaper registration upon the establishment of OFCA on 1 April 2012. Prior to that, the Television and Entertainment Licensing Authority was responsible for carrying out these functions.

4 On film classification, the Office is responsible for the examination of films for public exhibition under the three-tier film classification system and the examination of advertising materials and packaging of Category III films. The work of the Office involves:

- classifying films for public exhibition and publication and granting exemption from classification;
- examining advertising materials and packaging of video tapes and laser discs of Category III films;
- inspecting cinemas to enforce the age restriction for audience admission and other provisions under the FCO;
- inspecting video shops and other retail outlets to regulate the publication of films in the form of video tape and laser disc;
- gauging public opinion on film classification standards;
- maintaining a panel of advisers to allow public participation in the film classification process; and
- promoting the three-tier film classification system to the public.

Head 180 — OFFICE FOR FILM, NEWSPAPER AND ARTICLE ADMINISTRATION

5 On the enforcement of the COIAO, the Office is responsible for:

- regulating the publication and public display of obscene and indecent articles under the COIAO through monitoring articles published in the media and inspecting newspaper stalls, video and computer shops and other retail outlets;
- taking appropriate enforcement and prosecution action against violations of the COIAO;
- liaising with Internet service providers and the Hong Kong Internet Service Providers Association on the regulation of obscene and indecent materials transmitted through the Internet;
- organising publicity and public education programmes to promote public awareness of the provisions of the COIAO;
- processing complaints relating to the publication of obscene and indecent articles; and
- conducting periodic public surveys on the moral standards of members of the community.

6 In 2012, the Office continued its effort to promote public awareness of the protection of youth from indecent and obscene materials. Major activities organised are set out below:

- the COIAO Subsidising Scheme sponsored ten projects launched by voluntary organisations, youth bodies and schools to provide proper counselling and guidance for children and youth;
- the Meritorious Website Contest was held to promote safe and smart use of the Internet;
- a Healthy Application Nomination Programme was organised to promote the use of healthy applications in mobile phones or tablet personal computers;
- a radio drama programme was jointly organised with Hong Kong Commercial Broadcasting Company Limited to help promote the COIAO;
- district talks and workshops to promote the use of filtering software were conducted, with free filtering software distributed to parent participants;
- 214 schools talks for students/parents on safe and smart use of the Internet to protect the youth from indecent and obscene materials were conducted;
- an Internet video contest was held to promote the healthy use of the Internet among youngsters;
- an interschool rap contest was conducted to educate youngsters to stay away from objectionable materials;
- a student ambassador training scheme was held to recruit students to help promote the COIAO;
- an educational kit was being developed to promote secondary school students' awareness on the COIAO; and
- a school drama tour programme was conducted to promote the COIAO to students of primary and secondary schools.

7 The Office is also responsible for registering local newspapers and news agencies, and licensing newspaper distributors under the RLNO.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2013–14

9 During 2013–14, the Office will:

- continue its enforcement of the FCO and COIAO;
- continue to organise publicity and public education programmes to promote public awareness of the FCO and the COIAO;
- continue to assist the Commerce and Economic Development Bureau in mapping out the way forward on the review of the COIAO; and
- conduct a public opinion survey on the awareness and standards of the three-tier film classification system.

ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL PROVISION

| Programme | 2011–12 (Actual) ($m) | 2012–13 (Original) ($m) | 2012–13 (Revised) ($m) | 2013–14 (Estimate) ($m) |
|--|------------------------------|--------------------------------|-------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Film Classification, Control of Obscene and Indecent Articles and Newspaper Registration | 35.3# | 41.1 | 42.0 (+2.2%) | 43.6 (+3.8%) |
| | | | | (or +6.1% on 2012–13 Original) |

To facilitate comparison, the figure for 2011–12 excludes provisions for broadcast monitoring and regulation as well as entertainment licensing which were absorbed by the OFCA Trading Fund and transferred to Head 63 – Home Affairs Department respectively upon the establishment of OFCA on 1 April 2012.

Analysis of Financial and Staffing Provision

Provision for 2013–14 is $1.6 million (3.8%) higher than the revised estimate for 2012–13. This is mainly due to the increased provision for salary increase.
