Controlling Officer's Report

Programme

Complaints Administration

This programme contributes to Policy Area 30: Complaints Against Maladministration (The Ombudsman).

Detail

	2014–15 (Actual)	2015–16 (Original)	2015–16 (Revised)	2016–17 (Estimate)
Financial provision ($m)	107.2	107.1	112.2 (+4.8%)	110.8 (–1.2%)
				(or +3.5% on 2015–16 Original)

Aim

2 The aim is to redress grievances and address issues arising from maladministration in the public sector and to bring about improvement in the quality and standard of and promote fairness in the public administration, through independent and impartial investigation.

Brief Description

3 The Ombudsman is directly responsible to the Chief Executive for resolving complaints of maladministration lodged by the public with her through inquiries, investigations, mediation and other forms of assistance. The Ombudsman may, of her own volition, initiate direct investigation into areas of suspected maladministration. The Office generally met its objectives and targets in 2015.

4 The key performance measures in respect of complaints administration are:

Targets

The performance of the Office of The Ombudsman can be measured by the extent of public awareness and acceptance of the Office, the thoroughness of investigations, the efficiency with which complaints are resolved, and the degree of acceptance and recognition of the effectiveness of recommendations made for the redress of grievances.

Indicators

Key indicators of performance are the number of complaint cases and enquiries received; the number of complaint cases investigated or resolved through inquiries and mediation; the number of direct investigations completed; and the number of recommendations accepted by government departments/public bodies either directly or after discussion in the legislature. The reporting year of the Office ends on 31 March. The performance figures for the last three reporting years are:

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2016–17

5 During 2016–17, the Office will continue to:

- monitor the administrative actions of the public sector and institute direct investigations,
- encourage the use of mediation to settle complaints involving no or minor maladministration,
- develop strategic programmes to arouse public awareness and understanding of the work of the Office,
- enhance professionalism and the quality of complaint management in the Office and the public sector, and
- strengthen relationship with other ombudsman jurisdictions and related institutions through liaison and exchange programmes.
