Aim

7 The aim of the Government Records Service is to administer government records efficiently by formulating and implementing policies and plans for records management and archives administration.

Head 142 — GOVERNMENT SECRETARIAT: OFFICES OF THE CHIEF SECRETARY FOR ADMINISTRATION AND THE FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Brief Description

- 8 The Government Records Service's main responsibilities under this programme are to:
- formulate and implement government records management policies and programmes;
  - advise and support bureaux and departments on issues and solutions related to records management;
  - provide storage and disposal services for inactive records;
  - identify and preserve records of archival value, valuable government publications and printed materials; and
  - enhance public awareness of Hong Kong's documentary heritage, and provide research and reference services.
- 9 The key performance measures are:

The amount of archival records acquired fluctuates depending on the nature and number of records to be disposed of by bureaux and departments. The increase in the amount of archival records acquired in 2015 was mainly due to the Government Records Service's efforts in clearing the backlog.

^ The increase in the numbers of visitors and enquiries in 2015 was mainly due to the Government Records Service's promotional initiatives including the broadcasting of an Announcement in the Public Interest and a series of user education programme. With the continuation of promotional initiatives, it is expected that the number of visitors and enquiries in 2016 will be maintained at a level similar to that of the previous year.

@ The projected decrease in storage capacity for inactive government records is due to conversion of 8 000 linear metres of storage space to archival repositories.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2016–17

- 10 During 2016–17, the Government Records Service will continue to:
- promote electronic records management in the Government and provide support and assistance to bureaux and departments to adopt or develop an electronic recordkeeping system,
  - implement public education and publicity programme on Hong Kong's documentary heritage, and
  - undertake work relating to appraisal of records and accessioning of archival records to facilitate disposal of time-expired records and public access to archival records.
