INNOVATION AND TECHNOLOGY FUND

Memorandum Note

The Innovation and Technology Fund was established on 30 June 1999 by Resolution of the Legislative Council to finance projects to help promote innovation and technology upgrading in manufacturing and service industries. These efforts will contribute to increased productivity and enhanced competitiveness, and hence will be conducive to the long-term economic development of Hong Kong.

2 The Resolution provides, inter alia, that—

- (a) the Fund be administered by the Financial Secretary who may delegate his power of administration to other public officers;
- (b) there be credited to the Fund—
  - (i) such appropriations from the general revenue as may be approved by the Legislative Council for the purposes of the Fund;
  - (ii) all income received by way of interest, dividend or distribution in whatever form from—
    - (1) any loan, advance, investment or payment in whatever form made from the Fund in financing approved projects; and
    - (2) any investment made from the Fund;
  - (iii) all sums received by way of repayment of any loan or advance made from the Fund;
  - (iv) the proceeds of the sale of any investment made from the Fund; and
  - (v) such donations and other moneys as may be received for the purposes of the Fund;
- (c) the Financial Secretary may apply moneys from the Fund for the purpose of—
  - (i) financing projects that contribute to innovation and technology upgrading in the manufacturing and service industries; and
  - (ii) financing projects that contribute to the upgrading and development of the manufacturing and service industries, in accordance with such terms and conditions as may be specified by the Finance Committee of the Legislative Council;

- (d) the Director of Accounting Services shall, under the authority of a funds warrant issued by the Financial Secretary, pay from the Fund such sums as may be required to meet expenditures from the Fund; and
- (e) the Financial Secretary in his discretion may authorise the investment in such manner as he may determine of any moneys held in the Fund at any time.

3 The Finance Committee approved on 9 July 1999 an appropriation of $5 billion to the Fund. It further approved on 27 February 2015 an injection of $5 billion to the Fund.

4 Payments from the Fund for 2015–16 and 2016–17 are estimated at $1,014,475,000 and $1,257,495,000 respectively.

5 Provision of $1,115,195,000 under Subhead 101 Innovation and Technology (block vote) for 2016–17 is to meet payments for existing projects and new projects that may be approved in the course of the year. Of this provision, $229,078,000 is earmarked for projects to be undertaken by the Hong Kong Applied Science and Technology Research Institute Company Limited. Projects each costing over $30 million will be subject to approval by the Finance Committee and any expenditure arising therefrom will be offset by deleting an equivalent amount under Subhead 101.

6 For the subheads created in 2005–06 for projects under the Government's new funding approach for innovation and technology development, the following provisions are to meet payments for them in 2016–17:

- (a) $60,300,000 under Subhead 104 the Nano and Advanced Materials Institute;
- (b) $29,200,000 under Subhead 105 the Hong Kong Research Institute of Textiles and Apparel;
- (c) $20,800,000 under Subhead 106 the Automotive Parts and Accessory Systems Research and Development Centre; and
- (d) $32 million under Subhead 107 the Research and Development Centre for Logistics and Supply Chain Management Enabling Technologies.

7 Receipts taking the form of investment income, net income from projects and refund of grants for 2015–16 and 2016–17 are estimated at $55,294,000 and $120,974,000 respectively.
