Aim

2 The aim of the Independent Police Complaints Council (IPCC) is to ensure that investigations of reportable complaints by the Complaints Against Police Office (CAPO) of the Hong Kong Police Force (HKPF) are carried out in a thorough, impartial and efficient manner.

Brief Description

3 The main functions of the IPCC are:

- to observe, monitor and review the handling and investigation of reportable complaints by the Commissioner of Police (the Commissioner), and to make recommendations, where appropriate, to the Commissioner and/or the Chief Executive (CE) in respect of the handling and/or investigation of reportable complaints;
- to monitor actions taken or to be taken in respect of any member of the police force by the Commissioner in connection with reportable complaints, and to advise, where appropriate, the Commissioner and/or the CE of its opinion on such actions;
- to identify any faults or deficiencies in any practices or procedures adopted by the police force that have led to or might lead to reportable complaints, and to make recommendations, where appropriate, to the Commissioner and/or the CE in respect of such practices or procedures;
- to review submissions made by the Commissioner pursuant to the Independent Police Complaints Council Ordinance (Cap. 604) (the Ordinance); and
- to promote public awareness of the role of the IPCC.

4 The number and complexity of reportable complaints received and processed are the main indicators of IPCC's work. Performance is assessed having regard to the thoroughness with which investigation reports received from the Commissioner are examined and the quality of the comments given to the Commissioner on these reports.

5 The IPCC has broadly achieved its aim. Its overall performance, as reflected by the number and thoroughness of investigation reports reviewed and processed, has been maintained at a satisfactory level.

6 The key performance measures are:

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2018–19

- seek to increase the overall efficiency in the examination and review of complaint investigation reports and other submissions by the CAPO as stipulated in the Ordinance,
- enhance research capability in facilitation of the IPCC’s performance of its statutory functions,
- continue to identify any faults or deficiencies in HKPF’s practices or procedures with a view to reducing the number of complaints, and
- strive to further enhance public understanding of the role of the IPCC by reaching out to a wider community and organising publicity activities including school visits.

ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL PROVISION

	2016-17 (Actual) ($m)	2017-18 (Original) ($m)	2017-18 (Revised) ($m)	2018-19 (Estimate) ($m)
Programme
Police Complaints Administration	64.2	73.4	74.7 (+1.8%)	76.8 (+2.8%)
				(or +4.6% on 2017-18 Original)

Analysis of Financial and Staffing Provision

Provision for 2018-19 is $2.1 million (2.8%) higher than the revised estimate for 2017-18. This is mainly due to the increased provision for additional staff to establish a Research Team, strengthen technical capacity of the Information Technology Unit and enhance administrative support to Observers Scheme and Vetting Team, partly offset by decreased provision for capital expenditure and one-off expenditure in 2017-18 for setting up an additional office accommodation.
