Aim

2 The aim is to assist in maintaining efficient and stable civil and judicial services through the advice of the advisory bodies.

Brief Description

3 The five advisory bodies advise the Chief Executive on the following:

- Standing Commission on Civil Service Salaries and Conditions of Service – matters relating to the pay and conditions of service of the non-directorate civil service;
- Standing Committee on Disciplined Services Salaries and Conditions of Service – matters relating to the pay and conditions of service of the disciplined services;
- Standing Committee on Directorate Salaries and Conditions of Service – the structure of directorate posts and matters relating to pay and conditions of service;
- Standing Committee on Judicial Salaries and Conditions of Service – the structure of judicial posts and matters relating to pay and conditions of service; and
- Advisory Committee on Post-service Employment of Civil Servants – the principles and the criteria to be adopted in formulating policy and arrangements to control post-service employment, and the applications for post-service outside work from directorate officers.

Head 174 — JOINT SECRETARIAT FOR THE ADVISORY BODIES ON CIVIL SERVICE AND JUDICIAL SALARIES AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

4 The four advisory bodies on civil service and judicial salaries and conditions of service take into consideration recommendations from the Government and views of the staff before tendering their advice to the Chief Executive. The Advisory Committee on Post-service Employment of Civil Servants takes into consideration assessment and views of parties within the Government before tendering its advice on applications to the decision making authority.

5 The effectiveness of the work of the four advisory bodies on civil service and judicial salaries and conditions of service is reflected in the part they play in the formulation of principles and practices governing the grades, ranks, salary structures and conditions of service of the civil and judicial services. The effectiveness of the work of the Advisory Committee on Post-service Employment of Civil Servants is reflected in the extent to which the advice tendered assists the decision making authority to ensure that the post-service outside work of directorate civil servants within the periods of restriction would not constitute conflict of interest with their former government duties, cause negative public perception or give rise to reasonable apprehension of deferred reward.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2019–20

- 6 During 2019–20, the advisory bodies will continue to:
- tender advice to the Chief Executive on the civil service and judicial salaries and conditions of service;
 - examine and tender advice to the Government on proposals and applications put to them by the Government on matters within their ambits; and
 - conduct grade structure reviews as requested by the Government.
