Detail

Programme (1): Territorial Planning

| | 2018–19 (Actual) | 2019–20 (Original) | 2019–20 (Revised) | 2020–21 (Estimate) |
|---------------------------|---------------------|-----------------------|----------------------|------------------------------------|
| Financial provision ($m) | 135.1 | 151.1 | 148.4 (–1.8%) | 167.0 (+12.5%) |
| | | | | (or +10.5% on 2019–20 Original) |

Aim

2 The aim is to provide guidance and direction for long-term development and investment in Hong Kong through the formulation and revision of territorial planning policies and development strategies and the undertaking of planning studies including research with a cross-boundary dimension.

Brief Description

3 The Department is responsible for the preparation and review of territorial development strategy and the undertaking of planning studies for development areas. The work involves:

- updating the territorial development strategy;
- conducting land use-transport studies including land use-transport model tests, and evaluating the transport performance of development options or proposals in the course of formulating the territorial development strategy;
- carrying out planning studies and research on development issues with a cross-boundary dimension;
- examining the patterns and projecting the demand of cross-boundary travel;
- formulating and revising planning standards and guidelines;
- carrying out planning studies and research at the territorial level;
- undertaking planning studies for development areas;
- undertaking planning and urban design studies for harbourfront enhancement; and
- assessing and monitoring the provision of land for major uses.

Head 118 — PLANNING DEPARTMENT

4 In 2019, the Department completed the Cross-boundary Travel Survey 2017, the Study on Existing Profile and Operations of Brownfield Sites in the New Territories (Brownfield Study), the Urban Design Study for the Wan Chai North and North Point Harbourfront Areas, and the Planning and Engineering Study for Housing Sites in Yuen Long South. The Department continued to conduct the technical assessments and studies including land demand and supply analysis for the “Hong Kong 2030+: Towards a Planning Vision and Strategy Transcending 2030” (“Hong Kong 2030+”) study to support the finalisation of the updated territorial development strategy for completion in early 2020. As a follow-up to the Brownfield Study, the Department embarked on an in-house study on the scattered brownfield sites outside New Development Area (NDA) projects under planning and implementation, with an initial focus to identify suitable sites located near existing infrastructure for public housing development. Besides, the Study on Phase One Development of New Territories North – San Tin/Lok Ma Chau Development Node, which covers a significant amount of brownfield sites, commenced in late 2019. The Department provided strategic planning support to Lantau development and conservation, including the provision of planning input to relevant studies.

5 The key performance measures in respect of territorial planning are:

Ω Revised description of the previous indicator “surveys, reports, papers and studies conducted and produced for territorial planning strategies and special areas” as from 2020 for clarification/elaboration of the tasks undertaken by the Department.

Λ Revised description of the previous indicator “forecasts, reports and papers produced relating to supply and demand of land for major uses” as from 2020 for clarification/elaboration of the tasks undertaken by the Department.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2020–21

6 During 2020–21, the Department will:

- promulgate the updated territorial development strategy for the “Hong Kong 2030+” and undertake follow-up studies to take forward the recommendations of the “Hong Kong 2030+”;
- in collaboration with the Civil Engineering and Development Department (CEDD), take forward the proposed Studies related to the Artificial Islands in the Central Waters; Planning and Engineering Study on Sunny Bay Reclamation; and the Planning and Engineering Study for Lung Kwu Tan Reclamation and the Replanning of Tuen Mun West Area;
- in collaboration with the CEDD, continue to carry out the Study on Phase One Development of New Territories North – San Tin/Lok Ma Chau Development Node; and continue with the in-house study on scattered brownfield sites outside NDA projects under planning and implementation to identify those suitable for public housing development;
- commence and manage the Cross-boundary Travel Survey 2020;
- continue to conduct research on development issues with a cross-boundary dimension; and
- continue to provide strategic planning input to Lantau development and conservation including the Lantau Development Advisory Committee, as well as other major land development projects of territorial significance, including the Pilot Study on Underground Space Development in Selected Strategic Urban Areas.

Programme (2): District Planning

| | 2018–19 (Actual) | 2019–20 (Original) | 2019–20 (Revised) | 2020–21 (Estimate) |
|---------------------------|---------------------|-----------------------|----------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Financial provision ($m) | 430.5 | 464.3 | 459.7 (–1.0%) | 491.6 (+6.9%) |
| | | | | (or +5.9% on 2019–20 Original) |

Aim

7 The aim is to provide a rational pattern of land use to promote and guide development in different parts of the territory through the execution of various statutory and non-statutory town planning functions at the district level.

Brief Description

8 The Department undertakes forward planning, development control and planning for urban renewal in various planning districts, enforces the Town Planning Ordinance (Cap. 131) (TPO), and provides technical and secretariat services to the Town Planning Board (TPB) and its committees. The work involves:

- preparing and revising statutory and non-statutory plans;
- processing representations, comments and further representations on statutory plans;
- co-ordinating all submissions to the TPB and its committees, and submitting draft plans to the Executive Council;
- processing planning applications and reviews;
- processing applications for amendment of plans;
- handling planning appeals and judicial reviews relating to statutory planning procedures;
- preparing planning briefs, planning studies, research, reports and programmes;
- rendering district planning advice on development proposals and studies;
- conducting site searches;
- assisting the Development Bureau (DEVB) in the processing of the Urban Renewal Authority (URA)'s corporate plan and business plan;
- processing development proposals, including development schemes and development projects, of the URA;
- providing planning advice to the URA and other redevelopment agencies on urban renewal matters;
- providing professional advice to the Harbourfront Commission and its task forces for harbourfront enhancement initiatives;
- undertaking enforcement and prosecution actions against unauthorised developments under the TPO; and
- preparing and revising guidance notes and guidelines relating to statutory planning system and practice.

9 To improve the overall urban planning and living environment and to increase land supply, the Department has been reviewing the statutory plans of and preparing new statutory plans for various districts in a progressive manner. In 2019, the Department amended nine statutory outline zoning plans (OZPs) (including five involving land zoned/rezoned for residential use). In relation to statutory planning, there are a total of ten ongoing judicial reviews/civil claims. Out of these, four are active cases currently being dealt with by the Department, and the other six cases were heard by the court and are awaiting judgment. Revisions were also made to the Definition of Terms used in Statutory Plans, Broad Use Terms, Master Schedule of Notes to Statutory Plans, application and representation/comment forms, and corresponding amendments to the TPB Guidelines. In 2019, work on enforcement and prosecution against unauthorised developments continued, with 4 124 statutory notices issued for enforcement, and 210 defendants in respect of 87 cases successfully convicted. The Department worked closely with the DEVB and the URA in the implementation of urban renewal projects. This included assisting the DEVB in the processing of the URA's corporate plan and business plan for approval by the Financial Secretary; processing development scheme plans and development projects of the URA; and providing planning advice to the URA and other redevelopment agencies on urban renewal matters including urban renewal studies.

10 During 2019–20, the Department continued to work on different land use reviews in collaboration with the CEDD with a view to increasing housing, commercial and other land supply, including the planning and engineering studies on the replanning of Tseung Kwan O Area 137. The Department commenced the Area Assessment of Industrial Land in the Territory and provided district planning inputs to studies on the three urban squatter areas in Cha Kwo Ling Village, Ngau Chi Wan Village and Chuk Yuen United Village. Besides, the work on incorporating building height and other appropriate development parameters in various development zones on OZPs continued as necessary.

| prosecutions/reviews in magistracy and appeals handled..... | 63 | 96 | 80 |
| judicial reviews handled..... | 10 | 4 | 4 |

To better reflect the performance in respect of submission and gazettal of statutory plans at various stages of the plan-making process, the counting method for submission/gazettal of statutory plans would be refined starting from 2020.

@ Significant reduction in the number of representations/comments on statutory plans in 2019 was mainly due to less controversial issues involved in amendments to statutory plans as compared with those in 2018.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2020–21

12 During 2020–21, the Department will continue to:

- conduct land use reviews to increase housing, commercial and other land supply and undertake necessary statutory planning work to facilitate delivery of sites;
- increase the domestic floor space that can be provided on individual sites as far as permissible in planning terms, in accordance with the increased maximum domestic plot ratios allowed in different Density Zones as appropriate;
- produce and review statutory and administrative plans to guide development and to meet changing requirements in the territory;

Head 118 — PLANNING DEPARTMENT

- revise existing guidance notes and guidelines and prepare new ones to improve the statutory planning system and practice;
- handle ongoing and new judicial review cases/civil claims;
- take enforcement and prosecution actions against unauthorised developments in the rural New Territories;
- provide planning input to the West Kowloon Cultural District project;
- manage, in collaboration with the CEDD, district planning studies, including the planning and engineering study for the re-planning of Tseung Kwan O Area 137;
- provide district planning input to Lantau development and conservation;
- take forward the detailed planning of the Kwu Tung North/Fanling North NDAs, including preparation of planning briefs and urban design guidelines, and provision of planning input to the CEDD and the Lands Department (LandsD) to facilitate timely implementation of the NDAs;
- take forward the detailed planning of Tung Chung New Town Extension including provision of planning input to the CEDD and LandsD to facilitate timely implementation of the New Town Extension;
- take forward the detailed planning of Hung Shui Kiu/Ha Tsuen NDA including preparation of urban and green design study, and provision of planning input to the CEDD and LandsD to facilitate timely implementation of the NDA;
- take forward the detailed planning of Yuen Long South including the amendments of OZPs and provision of planning input to the CEDD and LandsD to facilitate timely implementation of the development area;
- carry out the Area Assessments of Industrial Land in the Territory; and
- provide district planning inputs to studies on development of the three urban squatter areas in Cha Kwo Ling Village, Ngau Chi Wan Village and Chuk Yuen United Village.

| | | | | (or +5.8% on 2019–20 Original) |

Aim

17 The aim is to provide technical services and training opportunities to staff in various sections of the Department, with a view to enhancing the quality of planning work.

Brief Description

18 The Department provides in-service training and services on information systems, technical administration, statistical data, urban design, air ventilation and landscape planning. The work involves:

- providing in-service training and arranging local and overseas training courses/seminars/conferences;
- providing technical administrative services through the preparation and revision of technical circulars, planning manual, practice notes as well as papers and reports on technical planning and information technology security matters;
- formulating, managing and enhancing the Department's computerisation and information technology strategies and data management systems, overseeing their implementation, and ensuring efficient and secure operation and support for smart city initiatives;
- managing and enhancing Internet services for online statutory plans to serve the public and a departmental portal to share planning information with bureaux and departments;
- providing expert advice and assistance to create visual aids including three-dimensional (3D) digital models and video clips for analysis and presentation of planning concepts and proposals;
- developing and applying geographic information systems, digital mapping, 3D, mobile and remote sensing technologies to facilitate land use and land utilisation analyses;

Head 118 — PLANNING DEPARTMENT

- collecting and collating data for making population, employment and other forecasts to facilitate territorial and other levels of planning studies; and
- providing urban design, landscape planning and air ventilation inputs for development planning under the TPO and tendering advice on landscape and visual impact assessments under the Environmental Impact Assessment Ordinance (Cap. 499).

19 The key performance measures in respect of technical services are:

Indicators

| | 2018 (Actual) | 2019 (Actual) | 2020 (Estimate) |

Analysis of Financial and Staffing Provision

Programme (1)

Provision for 2020–21 is $18.6 million (12.5%) higher than the revised estimate for 2019–20. This is mainly due to the increase in salary provision arising from a net increase of six posts and increase in operating expenses as well as cash flow requirements for non-recurrent items.

Programme (2)

Provision for 2020–21 is $31.9 million (6.9%) higher than the revised estimate for 2019–20. This is mainly due to the increase in salary provision arising from a net increase of 17 posts and increase in operating expenses as well as cash flow requirements for non-recurrent items.

Programme (3)

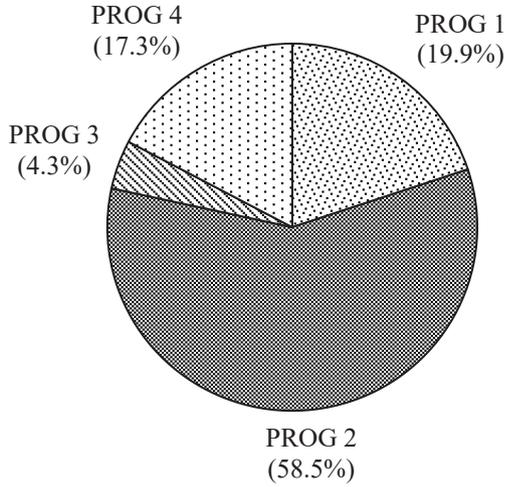

Provision for 2020–21 is the same as the revised estimate for 2019–20.

Programme (4)

Provision for 2020–21 is $10.6 million (7.9%) higher than the revised estimate for 2019–20. This is mainly due to the increase in salary provision arising from a net increase of six posts and increase in operating expenses, partly offset by decrease in cash flow requirements for non-recurrent as well as capital items.

Details of Expenditure by Subhead

The estimate of the amount required in 2020–21 for the salaries and expenses of the Planning Department is $839,934,000. This represents an increase of $61,085,000 over the revised estimate for 2019–20 and $127,650,000 over the actual expenditure in 2018–19.

Operating Account

Recurrent

2 Provision of $825,726,000 under Subhead 000 Operational expenses is for the salaries, allowances and other operating expenses of the Planning Department.

3 The establishment as at 31 March 2020 will be 941 posts. It is expected that there will be a net increase of 29 posts in 2020–21. Subject to certain conditions, the controlling officer may under delegated power create or delete non-directorate posts during 2020–21, but the notional annual mid-point salary value of all such posts must not exceed $564,185,000.

4 An analysis of the financial provision under Subhead 000 Operational expenses is as follows:
