Aim

- 2 The aim is to ensure that legal aid service is provided only to eligible applicants.

Brief Description

3 The Application and Processing Division and the Crime Section and Insolvency Unit of the Litigation Division of the Department assess applicants' eligibility for legal aid and the financial contributions required of them towards the relevant legal costs.

- 4 To qualify for legal aid, an applicant has to pass both the means test and the merits test.

5 Although an applicant's financial resources may exceed the prescribed financial eligibility limit, the Director of Legal Aid (the Director) may grant legal aid if a breach of the Hong Kong Bill of Rights Ordinance (Cap. 383) or an inconsistency with the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights as applied to Hong Kong is an issue, or, in a criminal case, if the Director is satisfied that it is desirable in the interests of justice to do so.

6 For civil cases, unsuccessful applicants may appeal against the Director's refusal to grant legal aid on grounds of means or merits. For criminal cases, unsuccessful applicants may appeal against the Director's refusal to grant legal aid where appeals to the Court of Final Appeal are involved. Legal aid may also be granted to an accused or appellant by a Judge in certain circumstances even though such has been refused by the Director.

- 7 The Department generally met the aim of the programme in 2021.
