Aim

The aim is to ensure that legal aid service is provided only to eligible applicants.

Brief Description

- The Application and Processing Division and the Crime Section of the Litigation Division of the Department assess applicants' eligibility for legal aid and the financial contributions required of them towards the relevant legal costs.
  - To qualify for legal aid, an applicant has to pass both the means test and the merits test.
- Although an applicant's financial resources may exceed the prescribed financial eligibility limit, the Director of Legal Aid (the Director) may grant legal aid if a breach of the Hong Kong Bill of Rights Ordinance (Cap. 383) or an inconsistency with the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights as applied to Hong Kong is an issue, or, in a criminal case, if the Director is satisfied that it is desirable in the interests of justice to do so.
- For civil cases, unsuccessful applicants may appeal against the Director's refusal to grant legal aid on grounds of means or merits. For criminal cases, unsuccessful applicants may appeal against the Director's refusal to grant legal aid where appeals to the Court of Final Appeal are involved. Legal aid may also be granted to an accused or appellant by a Judge in certain circumstances even though such has been refused by the Director.
  - The Department generally met the aim of the programme in 2023.
  - The key performance measures in respect of processing legal aid applications are:

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2024–25

- 9 During 2024–25, the Department will continue to monitor:
- the number of legal aid applications and the processing time;
- the effectiveness of the means-testing processes; and
- the use of mediation in legally-aided cases.

Aim

10 The aim is to discharge the Department's statutory duties relating to assignment and conduct of legal aid cases.

Brief Description

Assigning out and monitoring of cases

11 The Application and Processing Division and the Crime Section of the Litigation Division of the Department systematically monitor cases assigned to private practitioners.

In-house litigation

- 12 The Litigation Division conducts litigation on behalf of legally-aided persons. The work involves:
  - Civil litigation
- Personal injury and miscellaneous taking proceedings for legally-aided persons in respect of claims for common law damages for personal injuries and death and compensation under the Employees' Compensation Ordinance (Cap. 282), claims for seamen's wages, and claims for damages due to professional negligence; and
- Matrimonial taking or defending proceedings for legally-aided persons in respect of separation, dissolution or annulment of marriage or ancillary and other relief and wardship.
  - Criminal litigation
- representing legally-aided persons in committal proceedings in the Magistrates' Court, plea day proceedings in the District Court, and bail applications in the Court of First Instance; and
- acting as instructing solicitors for legally-aided persons in Court of First Instance cases, as well as in appeals before the Court of First Instance, the Court of Appeal and the Court of Final Appeal.
- 13 The Department generally met the aim of the programme in 2023.
- 14 The key performance measures in respect of assignment and conduct of legal aid cases are:

Δ The Protection of Wages on Insolvency Fund Board (PWIFB) has been procuring legal services from service providers to assist in handling winding-up and bankruptcy proceedings since 2023. Apart from those previously referred to the Department for issuing insolvency proceedings, the Labour Department has no longer referred new insolvency cases to the Department since 1 April 2023. As such, indicators on "new cases assigned" and "active cases pending issue of winding-up and bankruptcy order" are removed as from 2024.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2024–25

- 15 During 2024–25, the Department will continue to monitor:
- the progress and expenditure of legal aid cases;
- the performance of assigned private practitioners and progress of assigned-out cases;
- the cost effectiveness of litigation services; and
- the outstanding insolvency cases pending realisation of assets.

Aim

16 The aims are to provide effective support services for processing applications and conducting legal aid cases and for increasing public understanding and awareness of legal aid services, and to review or make recommendations on legal aid policy to meet areas of perceived needs.

Brief Description

- 17 Support services include:
- Costing assessing costs, preparing bills of costs and attending taxation hearings;
- Enforcement taking action to enforce unsatisfied judgments and orders; and
- Public education organising or participating in activities to enhance the public's knowledge and awareness of legal aid services provided by the Department.
- 18 The Department assesses and makes payments to assigned solicitors and counsel, and effects payment of damages recovered to clients.
- 19 In the area of policy and legislation, constant effort is made to improve the practical working of the legal aid schemes; to increase the Department's efficiency and productivity; to make recommendations on any change in legal aid legislation; and to comment on other legislation which may have an impact on the provision of legal aid services.
- 20 It is not possible to specify quantitative measures and indicators for work on policy and legislation, as performance in such areas must be judged in qualitative terms.
  - 21 The Department generally met the aims of the programme in 2023.

22 The key performance measures in respect of support services are:

Ψ Indicator to be removed as from 2024. As mentioned in paragraph 14 above, the PWIFB has taken up the insolvency cases since 2023, hence there were fewer cases for ex-gratia payment in 2023. It is expected that there will be no cases for ex-gratia payment referred by the Labour Department to the Department for further handling starting from 2024.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2024–25

- 23 During 2024–25, the Department will continue to:
- promote public awareness and understanding of legal aid services;
- provide support to the Legal Aid Services Council and implement recommendations of the Council to improve the quality and efficiency of legal aid services;
- monitor the performance pledges on payments related to legal aid cases; and
- monitor the outstanding insolvency cases pending realisation of assets.

Aim

24 The aim is to provide representation to persons under a legal disability and to discharge the Official Solicitor's duties as prescribed by the Official Solicitor Ordinance (Cap. 416) (OSO) and other enactments.

Brief Description

- 25 Under the OSO, the Director is appointed the Official Solicitor.
- 26 The Official Solicitor plays an important role in safeguarding the rights of those under a legal disability (i.e. mentally incapacitated persons and minors). He is also the Official Trustee pursuant to the Trustee Ordinance (Cap. 29) and may also act as the Judicial Trustee if appointed by the Court.
- 27 Cases falling within the scope of the Official Solicitor's duties include wardship, adoptions, contempt cases, divorce and family cases, committee cases, Judicial and Official Trustee cases and grants of administration. A large proportion of the cases involving the work of the Official Solicitor includes representation of persons under a legal disability, representation of deceased persons' estates in litigation and management of a number of trust funds. Where so directed by the Court, the Official Solicitor undertakes investigations and reports on matters such as complex custody and/or access issues.
- 28 The Official Solicitor also provides, upon requests by other government bureaux or departments, advice on matters such as custody, adoption and representation of children and comments on legislation which may have an impact on the provision of services by the Official Solicitor's Office.
  - 29 The Department generally met the aim of the programme in 2023.
  - 30 The key performance measures in respect of the Official Solicitor's Office are:

Indicators

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2024–25

- 31 During 2024–25, the Official Solicitor's Office will continue to:
- enhance the efficiency and quality of its services; and
- promote understanding of the work of the Official Solicitor's Office by strengthening communication with other government departments, non-governmental organisations and legal practitioners.

Analysis of Financial and Staffing Provision

Programme (1)

Provision for 2024–25 is $5.9 million (4.3%) higher than the revised estimate for 2023–24. This is mainly due to the increased provision for filling of vacancies and salary increments.

Programme (2)

Provision for 2024–25 is $172.8 million (13.7%) higher than the revised estimate for 2023–24. This is mainly due to the increased provision for legal aid costs.

Programme (3)

Provision for 2024–25 is $0.2 million (0.3%) higher than the revised estimate for 2023–24. This is mainly due to the increased provision for personnel related expenses, partly offset by decreased provision for allowances and operating expenses.

Programme (4)

Provision for 2024–25 is $0.1 million (0.5%) higher than the revised estimate for 2023–24. This is mainly due to the increased provision for filling of vacancies and salary increments, partly offset by the decrease in operating expenses.

Details of Expenditure by Subhead

The estimate of the amount required in 2024–25 for the salaries and expenses of the Legal Aid Department is $1,657,403,000. This represents an increase of $178,955,000 over the revised estimate for 2023–24 and $128,201,000 over the actual expenditure in 2022–23.

Operating Account

Recurrent

- 2 Provision of $401,483,000 under Subhead 000 Operational expenses is for the salaries, allowances and other operating expenses of the Legal Aid Department.
- 3 The establishment as at 31 March 2024 will be 563 permanent posts. It is expected that there will be a decrease of four posts in 2024–25. Subject to certain conditions, the controlling officer may under delegated power create or delete non-directorate posts during 2024–25, but the notional annual mid-point salary value of all such posts must not exceed $301,344,000.
