Programme (6): Other Educational Services and Subsidies

	2024–25 (Actual)	2025–26 (Original)	2025–26 (Revised)	2026–27 (Estimate)
Financial provision ($m)	1,290.2	1,510.6	1,486.8 (–1.6%)	1,468.8 (–1.2%)
				(or –2.8% on 2025–26 Original)

Aim

26 The aim is to strengthen the professional training and development of school principals and teachers and to provide resources for other services for specific educational purposes.

Brief Description

Training and development of principals and teachers

27 Teachers have to meet professional standards and other requirements specified in the Education Ordinance (Cap. 279) and Education Regulations (Cap. 279A) before they can be registered or permitted to teach. With a view to enhancing teachers' professionalism, the Bureau works with the Committee on Professional Development of Teachers and Principals (COTAP) in formulating measures to promote professional development of teachers and principals across the continuum from student teachers and novice teachers to experienced teachers, aspiring principals, newly-appointed principals, and experienced principals. In addition to fostering a professional and collaborative culture among the teaching profession, the Bureau also formulates measures relating to the certification of aspiring principals and gives due recognition to teachers with excellent performance.

Educational support for newly-arrived children (including NCS children)

28 Apart from providing school places for newly-arrived children, the Bureau provides them with Induction Programmes through non-governmental organisations and full-time Initiation Programmes before they enrol in mainstream schools. Schools which admit newly-arrived children also receive grants from the Bureau for organising school-based support programmes to help these children integrate into the local education system.

Educational support to students with diverse needs

29 Apart from providing resources for schools to support students with diverse needs, the Bureau implements various support measures. The support for NCS students in the learning of the Chinese language includes, among others, the promotion of early adaptation in pre-primary education to parents and provision of funding and professional support to schools admitting NCS students. The Bureau also strengthens the professional capacity of the principals and teachers of public sector ordinary schools in supporting students with SEN.

National education

30 The Bureau offers opportunities for students to join Mainland exchange programmes and arranges professional exchange programmes for teachers.

Gifted education

31 The Bureau continues to enhance learning opportunities both within and outside school to cater for the needs of gifted students. Training and support are provided to facilitate schools/teachers to enhance school-based gifted education development. The Bureau also continues to support the Hong Kong Academy for Gifted Education (HKAGE) to provide after-school enrichment programmes for gifted and talented students. The Bureau supports relevant education programmes under the Gifted Education Fund and works closely with the programme providers.

Subsidies to educational bodies

32 The Bureau supports activities which contribute to the wider involvement in education and development of professionalism. The Bureau provides subvention to the Hong Kong Education City Limited for the delivery of quality education information and resources to schools, teachers, students and parents through an e-platform.

33 The key performance measures in respect of services under this programme are:

Indicators

- ε One development programme may comprise more than one event. The revised estimate/estimate of teacher development programmes refer to those which have been planned at the beginning of the school year. It is a common practice for the Bureau to adjust its teacher development programme planning and organise ad hoc programmes throughout the school year to cater for the ongoing curriculum development needs.
- κ The demand for face-to-face teacher development programmes is estimated to be lower as the Bureau strives to support teachers' different professional needs through more diversified training modes, such as school-based support services, learning circles, online courses and Mainland study tours.
- @ The demand for face-to-face training places by school managers is estimated to be lower in view of the Bureau's effort in promoting online self-learning via "School-based Management Learning Channel", "E-learning Courseware for School Managers" and videos of thematic seminars, etc.
- η Enrolment for the 2025/26 school year was higher owing to increased school participation in the Programme.

Matters Requiring Special Attention in 2026–27

34 During 2026–27, the Bureau will:

- enhance the teacher registration mechanism and explore amending the Education Ordinance to introduce the practising certificate and regular renewal requirements;
- continue to enhance the professionalism of teachers and principals by:
 - implementing training requirements for newly-joined and serving teachers and teachers to be promoted, covering professional roles, values and conduct of teachers; education development at the local, national and international levels; national education; national security education, etc.;
 - working with COTAP to implement suitable projects under the T-excel@hk strategic work plan and other initiatives for teachers to broaden their perspectives and enrich their experience; and
 - requiring all newly-appointed teachers in all public sector and DSS schools and kindergartens joining KES to pass the Basic Law and National Security Law Test;
- continue to develop a variety of learning and teaching resources for promoting national education, national security education and patriotic education, facilitating students' accurate and more comprehensive understanding of our country, including national history and geography, Constitution and the Basic Law, the national flag, the national emblem, the national anthem, the regional flag and the regional emblem;
- continue to strengthen gifted education by enhancing support for HKAGE and offering more off-school educational services for gifted students in targeted fields, such as STEAM, through training, activities and competitions at the territory-wide, national and international levels;

- continue to strengthen parent education and promote home-school co-operation through measures including:
 - taking forward the Positive Parent Campaign, providing parent education programmes and resources;
 - organising specific parent education activities and providing resources for parents of NCS students; and
 - supporting the work of the Committee on Home-School Co-operation and subsidising relevant Parent-Teacher Associations and Federations of Parent-Teacher Associations to organise more home-school co-operation and parent education programmes or activities; and
- continue to oversee the strategic development of the Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority and its optimisation of the various arrangements for public examinations, as well as the promotion of international recognition of the Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination.

With sub-degree places included, about 80 per cent of young people in the relevant age group now have access to post-secondary education. In addition, the Bureau implements initiatives to support students pursuing post-secondary education both locally and outside Hong Kong.

37 The Bureau implements the cross-sectoral Qualifications Framework, which aims to provide clear and diverse progression pathways and specify the outcome standards required for the award of qualifications at different levels. The Bureau also implements the Diploma of Applied Education Programme, which has replaced the Diploma Yi Jin Programme starting from the 2023/24 academic year, to provide an alternative pathway for secondary six school leavers and adult learners to obtain a formal qualification for employment and continuing education.

38 The Bureau provides the following support for eligible students:

- the Hong Kong Scholarship for Excellence Scheme, which supports outstanding students studying at renowned universities outside Hong Kong;
- the Mainland University Study Subsidy Scheme, which provides a subsidy for eligible students pursuing undergraduate studies at designated Mainland institutions;

Head 156 — GOVERNMENT SECRETARIAT: EDUCATION BUREAU
