Controlling Officers' Reports and Analysis of Financial Provision

This Head provides for subventions to a number of local organisations, and for Hong Kong's participation in a number of international organisations.

Policy Area 6: Commerce and Industry

Secretary for Commerce and Industry

Subhead 437 Hong Kong-Japan Business Co-operation Committee (HKJBCC)

2 Provision of $3,610,000 is for subventing the HKJBCC, which was formed in 1979 to foster friendship and understanding between the business communities of Hong Kong and Japan and to promote trade, investment and economic co-operation.

3 Since its inception, the HKJBCC and its counterpart, the Japan-Hong Kong Business Co-operation Committee, have been meeting at least once a year alternately in Hong Kong and Japan to update and discuss trade and economic issues. Through its three Working Committees—on trade development, industrial development and communications—the HKJBCC has a regular programme of activities, including:

- commissioning and publication of market surveys;
- organising market exposition seminars in association with the Japan External Trade Organisation;
- arranging study-missions, purchasing-delegations and technology-exchange programmes designed to help Japanese industrialists gain a more comprehensive understanding of Hong Kong's business environment and manufacturing capabilities, and to encourage the transfer of advanced Japanese industrial production technologies to Hong Kong; and
- conducting media campaigns designed to highlight Hong Kong's attractions as a major manufacturing and financial centre in the region.

4 The activities of HKJBCC have played a role in contributing to increased exports to Japan and increased Japanese investment in Hong Kong.

5 The Hong Kong Trade Development Council (see Head 177—Subventions: Non-Departmental Public Bodies Subhead 444) will provide an additional $1,930,000 to the Committee in 2002–03.

Subhead 461 United Nations Development Programme (UNDP)

6 Provision of $308,000 is to meet the 2002 annual contribution towards the costs of UNDP's activities benefiting Hong Kong and part of the administrative costs of the UNDP country office which deals with UNDP matters relating to Hong Kong. Hong Kong benefits from the UNDP in terms of overseas training and expert advisory and consultancy services.

Head 176 — SUBVENTIONS: MISCELLANEOUS

Subhead 457 World Customs Organisation (WCO)

7 Provision of $260,000 is to pay for Hong Kong's contribution to the 2002–03 WCO budget. The objectives of the WCO are to improve and rationalise customs operations and facilitate international trade.

Subhead 420 Asian and Pacific Development Centre (APDC)

8 Provision of $88,000 is to meet the annual contribution of US$11,220 to the APDC. In contributing to APDC, Hong Kong is able to nominate participants to attend the training courses and seminars organised by the Centre, and benefit from the Centre's consultancy and information on development.

Law Society of Hong Kong through a governing council and is administered by an administrator who is a legally qualified person.

22 The Legal Aid Department provides legal representation in both civil and criminal cases heard in the District Court and above under the Legal Aid Ordinance and the Legal Aid in Criminal Cases Rules. To ensure access to justice on matters outside the jurisdiction of the Legal Aid Department, the Duty Lawyer Scheme provides legal representation to any defendant in Magistrates' Courts where the interests of justice require, and without payment by the defendant in any such case if he does not have sufficient means to pay for it. The Scheme also provides, either with the agreement or at the request of the Government, other forms of legal assistance and advice. These at present include assigning lawyers to advise defendants facing extradition, to monitor one-way viewer identification parades, and to represent hawkers upon their appeals to the Municipal Services Appeals Board. With effect from 31 July 2000, the duty lawyer representation has been extended to any person who is at risk of criminal prosecution as a result of giving incriminating evidence in Coroner's inquest.

23 The Legal Advice Scheme provides free legal advice without means testing at nine evening centres at Sha Tin, Tsuen Wan, Wan Chai, Central and Western, Yau Tsim Mong, Kwun Tong, Eastern, Islands and Wong Tai Sin District Offices. In addition, the Scheme provides advice at the offices of the Hong Kong Federation of Women's Centres and the Hong Kong Federation of Women. Members of the public can make appointments to see volunteer lawyers through one of the 122 referral agencies which include all district offices and many voluntary agencies. The DLS has generally met its target of arranging a client of the Scheme to see volunteer lawyers at a centre of his choice within two weeks upon confirmation of an appointment.

24 The Tel-Law Scheme is a 24-hour free telephone enquiry service which provides members of the public with basic information on the legal aspects of everyday problems. There are 73 tapes available in Cantonese, English and Putonghua, covering matrimonial, landlord and tenant, criminal, financial, employment and administrative law.

25 The key performance measures of the DLS are:

	2000 (Actual)	2001 (Actual)	2002 (Estimate)
number of persons who received legal advice and representation from the Duty Lawyer Scheme .....	40 791	43 313	45 067

Details of Expenditure by Subhead

The estimate of the amount required in 2002–03 for subventing or subscribing to the various organisations and institutions in and outside Hong Kong under this Head is $301,155,000. This represents an increase of $6,874,000 over the revised estimate for 2001–02 and a decrease of $31,624,000 against actual expenditure in 2000–01. Details of expenditure in respect of subheads where there are significant increases or decreases in provision are described hereunder.

Recurrent Account

Subventions

2 Provision of $88,000 under Subhead 420 Asian and Pacific Development Centre (APDC) represents an increase of $8,000 (10.0%) over the revised estimate for 2001–02. This is mainly due to a 10% increase in annual contribution to APDC in 2002–03.

Capital Account

Subventions

3 Provision of $3,779,000 under Subhead 863 Non-government organisation camps (block vote) is to assist the subvented camps/centres to undertake major repairs, maintenance and improvement works with the cost of each individual item above $50,000 but not exceeding $2,000,000. The decrease of $1,802,000 (32.3%) against the revised estimate for 2001–02 is mainly due to reduced requirement for repairs and maintenance.

4 Provision of $5,960,000 under Subhead 864 Skills centres (block vote) is for procurement of machinery, equipment and furniture and conversion of one workshop for Hong Chi Pinehill Advanced Training Centre, improvement of facilities for trainees with disabilities and Phase II work of the lift replacement project of Kwun Tong Skills Centre, repair and maintenance works for Pokfulam Skills Centre, inspection and testing of electrical installations of Tuen Mun Skills Centre and Kwun Tong Skills Centre, and replacement of centre bus, repainting and maintenance of Tuen Mun Skills Centre. The increase of $3,748,000 (169.4%) over the revised estimate for 2001–02 is mainly due to increased requirement for replacement and maintenance of facilities for three skills centres.
